ANC E-Daily

Each day of SNA's Annual National Conference (ANC), all registered attendees receive an e-blast accessible on mobile devices that features exclusive interviews, schedule highlights and updates, reminders, trivia and more. ANC 2019 total registration reached more than 7,000. This highly visible marketing tool is available to two exclusive advertisers* each day of the conference, with an additional e-blast the day after the conference. Contact your SNA sales representative for rates and specifications.

*Must be a current ANC exhibitor.

SNA Conference E-Blast Package

There are advertising opportunities available to increase your visibility before SNA's Annual National Conference (ANC) and its School Nutrition Industry Conference (SNIC) through the SNA Conference E-Blast Package. Take advantage of multiple pre-conference email communications from SNA, sent throughout the weeks leading up to ANC (July) and SNIC (January).

There is only one advertiser* per e-blast message, guaranteeing prime real estate and exclusivity for your message at one or both of these SNA conferences. These conference-themed e-blasts are sent to K-12 foodservice operators and state agency representatives and allow you to tailor your message specifically to all registered conference attendees. Contact your SNA sales representative for rates, specifications and availability of these opportunities: SNIC in January 2020 and ANC in July 2020.

*SNIC: Only one package of six e-blasts offered;
ANC: Two packages of six e-blasts offered.
